Platform Of Myers Told Townsfolk

Candidate Insists Gasoline Tax Should Be Turned Back To Cities

"One percent of the population of this country owns 59 percent of the wealth, six percent own 41 percent, leaving the balance of 93 percent owning just two percent. This condition must be remedied if we ever expect to make it a permanent recovery," was the statement made by Addison B. Ritchey, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the 11th District, at a meeting of the Sierra Madre Forum in the City Hall on Tuesday evening. Mr. Ritchey also advanced some plans for rehabilitation of the unemployed as well as methods whereby homes may be purchased.

Al S. Myers, candidate for supervisor of the First district outlined his platform. According to Mr. Myers, the gasoline tax, amounting to approximately five and one-half million dollars, which has been returned to Los Angeles County by the State, should be distributed on the basis of population, instead of on the present basis. "If this gasoline tax, which we help to pay, were returned to our city, we should have about $10,000 additional income a year for this city," he said, "and according to law this money must be used for street maintenance and the building of roads. With that sum Sierra Madre could also take care of a large part of its own unemployment problem, and not have to depend almost entirely on either the County Welfare department or the Federal government."

A second point in Mr. Myers' platform is the plan to do away with the wholesale purchase of supplies for the unemployed. "These sums, if spent with local merchants would make business better in the smaller communities," he said, "and as the wholesalers would be selling to the local merchants anyway, they would not lose by the change. Decentralization of county government is needed. There are many things which the municipalities could do by contract with the County, but there are also many functions which belong properly to the municipality."

O. D. Hunt, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Assembly, from the 48th District, will be one of the speakers at the regular meeting of the Sierra Madre Forum, Tuesday evening, June 12th, in the City Hall. Victor Schmidt, local attorney, will discuss "The Law and Facts of the Air Mail Controversy—Should the Contracts have been Cancelled?"

Guest artists who will appear on the program of the June Revue, given by the Cricket Caudin Studio of Dancing, at the Women's Clubhouse, Friday evening, June 8th, include Enid Clayton, Lucile Barchard, Virginia Lund, and Agnes O'Reilly, of the Martha Meserole Studio of Pasadena.

Gay and colorful novelty numbers, as well as the more formal type of dancing will be interpreted by the pupils of the local studio. Elves, gypsies, Dutch, Russian and French dolls, even Raggedy Ann herself, will interest the children. Intricate tap, musical comedy, and eccentric numbers will be given by the young women's and young men's tap classes.

This event will close the first session of the Studio and will demonstrate the work done by the pupils under direction of Cricket Caudin and Ruth Klunk during the season. A six weeks' summer session will open at the Studio in the Clubhouse, June 19.

Vets Annex Three Games; Bust Record

Continue Terrific Attack And Score 40 Runs Against San Dimas Sojers

Keeping up their terrific offensive, the Sierra Madre Legionnaires not only annexed three ball games from other veteran teams of the 18th district during the week, but hung up an all-time record for runs scored in a single game in the Legion circuit and on the home grounds. The latter feat was accomplished when the San Dimas soldiers were overwhelmed by a score of 40 to 12. The other victories were over the City Terrace veterans, defeated 5-1 on Friday night and Arcadia's Legionnaires trounced 10-5 on Tuesday night.

In Tuesday's game Arcadia was held scoreless in seven of the nine innings. Not only that—not a runner reached first during these innings when most of the opposing batsmen took mighty swings at the balmey Sierra Madre ozone, for Pratt registered 16 strikeouts.

Gwyn scored again in the seventh when he poked the ball over the center fielder's head for a home run. Three more went over in the eighth when Mathis tripled and Hill, Young, Harkness and Gwyn all singled.

Mathis hit a home run, a triple and a single in four trips to the plate and Gwyn a home run, a double and a single in five.

New Record Established At Exhibit

Reception By Art League Students At Little Gallery Is Huge Success

"What do you know about art?" the founder of the Municipal Art League said to the layman as he entered the anniversary exhibit of the work of the Municipal Art League students in the Little Gallery at the City Hall on Wednesday night.

"Well," said the Man From Around the Corner, "all I know about art is what I see out the window. Nature is some artist, and art is as free as air—green hills, sunshine, the song of birds."

"That makes you a critic," said the Founder, "look around."

Looking around was easy—the pictures on the walls were framed by the gorgeous and healthful beauty of many of Sierra Madre's lads, lasses and dames, giving all a warm welcome, lending a social charm to the continuous parade of admiring townsfolk around the Council chamber, known during art exhibits as "The Little Gallery."

The jugs of wine in the pictures—some so lifelike they looked ready to pour, led some venerable citizens and many others direct to the punch bowl.

Over in the corner an engineer's chart told of the accomplishment of the League in its first year of existence—101 classes, 1331 students, an average attendance at the semi-weekly classes of 13.1. The drawings on the walls—charcoal and a few oils—none of which had been made for exhibition but all the work of the students at school, gave fitting testimony of the League's development of self-expression and cultural attainment.

And behind the scene of joyous jubilation and local pride there was the story of the birth and progress of an idea—born right here in Sierra Madre a score of years ago. Harry Hawxhurst fathered it. An infant, it drooped and died in the war period, to be reborn again . . . to thrive on depression, for the depression has enhanced cultural pursuits.

Nearly three years ago Hawxhurst dusted out the "Old Barn," and laid the foundation for the League. It was a pioneer idea. There were a few students at first, then more, then the fame of the idea and its founder quickly spread. The idea was taken up elsewhere—spread all over the country. Sierra Madre can truly claim to be the community Columbus in making art "as free as air."

Mr. Hawxhurst is still an active teacher. Alfred James Dewey and Vernon Morse, noted artists, giving of their time and talent without limit. The students come from all walks of life, and are of all ages—the youngest is 12 years old, the oldest 65. Few of them, if any, hope to become professional artists.

The reception marking the opening of the exhibit, which will remain at the "Little Gallery" during the remainder of this month, drew the largest crowd that has attended an art showing here, including practically all of the professional artists of the local colony and a number from Monrovia, Pasadena and other nearby cities, together with writers and city officials and the heads of practically all of the local organizations.

Plants and beautiful flowers donated by the Ward Nursery added to the cheerfulness of the occasion. Mrs. Megs Olds was chairman of the reception committee of students that greeted the visitors and acted as guides, identifying the more than one hundred pieces of workmanship on the walls. Mrs. Blanche Lines presided at an information desk where more than a dozen new students and patrons were enrolled.

THE TRAVELERS will hasten north through the Mother Lode country from Mariposa to Nevada City and may return Rollins-Royce if everything the operators report to Hawks is true—or nearly so.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

The difference between those who can see and appreciate a little of art and those who cannot is like the difference between those who live and those who merely exist. In every face, every scene, every commonplace of daily life, those with eyes trained to observe the contrast of light and shadow, of features and likenesses, of symbolism and suggestion, see and understand things which are wholly lost on the rest of us.

Therefore the influence of "The Old Barn" on our community is incalculable. It is teaching many of us who had eyes but saw not how to see. It is opening the door to fuller life to any and all of us who wish to take advantage of it.

The exhibition of drawings by students at "The Barn" is remarkable when one considers that "The Old Barn" is only a year old. It is one in which our community should take pride.

"Sam" Twycross III

S. R. G. Twycross, of South Baldwin avenue, suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion on Wednesday night. His condition is serious and he will be confined to his home for several days.

Bank Assures Funds To Provide For All Requirements Here

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank held June 6th the stockholders authorized the issuance of $25,000 preferred stock and sale thereof to Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

This action was taken by the bank in accordance with the Nation-wide plan to provide ample funds to care for all legitimate business needs and is similar to that being followed by practically all of the largest banks in the United States. The details of the plan have the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the State Superintendent of Banks. The government, according to reports from Washington, expects to make such investments in the banks of the country which will probably aggregate the sum of $500,000,000.

The directors of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank feel happy to assist in this Nation-wide plan to provide adequate funds to care for all future business needs.

New Course Of Study At Bible School

Vacation Classes At Bethany Will Open June 18, And Close On July 15

Opening on Monday, June 18, the annual session of the Summer Bible School at Bethany Church will be conducted under the supervision of Stewart R. Sheriff, minister, and Graeme Smith, superintendent.

The course of study this year will be patterned after the system of Dr. A. L. Latham, developed in the Third Presbyterian Church of Chester, Pennsylvania, and now in use throughout the country in several hundred Bible Schools of many denominations. This program has proven to be very effective in giving the children a complete and practical understanding of the Bible. It includes classes for all ages from the pre-school up to young people of Junior College age.

As has been customary in the past, the school will be open to all children of the community and will be conducted in the interest of helping them to use their vacation time in a worthwhile way. There is no desire to advance the interests of any one organization, but merely to give valuable work to supplement the training the children are already receiving in the various Sunday schools.

Since former sessions have already shown it advisable to close daily classes before the warm part of the day, classes will be held every day except Saturday and Sunday from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. The plan is to continue the school for four weeks closing on July 13.

Gold Strike Leads Jim Hawks To His Meadow Lake Claim

James N. Hawks of the realty firm of Andrews and Hawks, and Harold McMillan, brother of the police chief, will leave on an interesting trip this morning. Hawks is all excited about reports from his extensive mining claim at Meadow Lake in Nevada County. A shaft has been sunk 135 feet and the gold is assaying above expectations.

The travelers will hasten north through the Mother Lode country from Mariposa to Nevada City and may return Rollins-Royce if everything the operators report to Hawks is true—or nearly so.

Ask Merriam To Convene Legislature

Assemblyman Martin Renews Plea For Quick Action On Relief Measures

One of the first messages which Frank F. Merriam received after taking the oath of office as Governor of California, was a telegraphic appeal from Assemblyman F. G. Martin, of this 48th Assembly District, to call a special session of the Legislature immediately to take quick action upon relief measures which Mr. Martin feels require instant and positive legislative action. Mr. Martin's message to the new Governor read as follows:

"I urge you, as your first important act as Governor, to summon the Legislature in special session immediately to consider: (a) business-like relief for unemployed; (b) extension of moratorium on delinquent tax penalties; (c) extension of moratorium on mortgages; (d) repeal statute which empowers the State Board of Control to levy ad valorem taxes; (e) revision of building and loans laws. I am profoundly convinced such relief legislation is required quickly. I have confidence in you and pledge my support to you as Governor."

Store Celebrates Anniversary With Big Bargain Event

Celebrating its fifth anniversary and in preparation for the expansion of the store, Becker's Dress Shop, of Arcadia, is offering a full line of specials at most attractive prices. The shop was opened June 15, 1929, as a general dry goods store catering to both men's and women's apparel needs and gradually as the demand made it advisable the sections of the store devoted to men's wear, domestics and notions have been eliminated and attention concentrated upon the women's ready to wear departments. Mr. Becker's experience as a buyer in the ready to wear departments of a large Los Angeles department store established connections for him in the wholesale markets so that he is in a position to offer the very latest and up to the minute modes. The expansion of the store will include additional frontage to take care of increasing patronage and an enlarged stock.

First Recital Here By Claramae Stamm Is Warmly Received

Appearing for the first time in the Woman's Clubhouse on Thursday evening, May 24, Claramae Stamm offered a piano program of unusual musical merit—a program in which dignity and tonal poetry were nicely balanced.

The first part consisted of the time honored old masters, Schumann, Chopin and Brahms in which she gave a remarkable showing of technical skill with a certain fresh translation of these familiar works.

The second part of the program included such modern composers as Satie, Ravel, Stravinsky and Debussy. With charming informalism she gave interesting high lights, explaining the works of these composers and their style of writing. Beginning with Satie, who writes with no signature or key, giving only the note values, she interpreted a group of three lightly fantastic dances called "Gnossienne" and a sarabande. The chaotic counterpoint of Ravel was reduced to melodic clarity and she reached dramatic heights in Stravinsky's "Berceuse" (from the Firebird).

The culmination of the program was a group by Debussy with such sheer delicacy of tone surpassed everything else—sound so fine that it seemed to translate one to the realm of the spiritual and giving the sensation of being wafted through a region of untouched purity with ultimate manifestation in "Sunk-en Cathedral."

Ovations and bouquets of lovely flowers were bestowed upon Mrs. Stamm and most of the audience lingered to meet her at the reception tendered her by the music section of the club, of which Mrs. George B. Morgridge is chairman.

Home Repair Encouraged By Uncle Sam

Powers Of Local Corporation Extended To Further Aid Distressed Owners

Clarification of the eligibility of home owners to obtain aid from the Home Owners' Loan Corporation in reconditioning of homes is contained in a statement just received in California from the Home Loan Bank Board in Washington.

Authority to make loans for the purpose of repairing and reconditioning of homes was granted in an amendment made recently to the original act by Congress. The Board's statement says:

"There seems to be a rather general impression that the recent amendment passed by Congress empowers the Home Owners' Loan Corporation to lend money to all home owners who desire to recondition their property.

"This is incorrect. The Corporation is authorized to lend money for reconditioning only to home owners in financial distress, and in most cases only in connection with its refinancing operations. The Corporation may make loans of the following group of home owners:

"1—Those who have already secured loans from the Corporation.

"2—Those who are eligible to have their mortgages taken over by the Corporation. (To be eligible, a home owner must be financially unable to make payments on his present mortgage unable to obtain financing elsewhere, and actually faced with foreclosure or tax sale; the property must be a dwelling for not more than four families, worth not more than $20,000, and must be the owner's home or homestead.)

"3—Those who have their homes clear of any mortgage; but only if they cannot get loans from any private lending agency.

"Thus the Corporation is authorized to make loans for reconditioning only to those home owners who are in some form of credit distress. Furthermore, practically all loans for reconditioning will be in addition to loans for refinancing mortgages.

"Applications for loans for reconditioning or refinancing from those who are not eligible can not be considered. Home owners who are not in credit distress are urged, therefore, not to apply."

Arcadia Removes Barriers To Race Tracks Completion

With all the Arcadia city barriers ironed out in the decision to permit the Los Angeles Turf Club to use treated cedar and treated redwood posts for stable footings instead of concrete required by a local ordinance, work on the new Santa Anita race track is being held up by the dockworkers' strike. Somewhere along the coast a shipload of lumber is tied up. As soon as it arrives work on 43 stables will be rushed.

Permits for the horse barns, calling for an expenditure of $87,000 were issued last Saturday. Other work at the million dollar track is progressing rapidly. Permits approved by the State Fire Marshall call for $125,000 in steel to be used in building the grandstand. It is hoped to finish the stables by July 15th when work on the stands will start.

SURPRISING LOT OF ANIMALS BROUGHT OUT AS ENTRIES IN CHILDREN'S PET COMPETITION

Birds, Rats, Turtles And Guinea Pigs Listed, But Dogs Have First Place

PETS of all kinds dear to the hearts of kiddies—dogs, cats, rabbits, chickens, turtles, birds, rats, guinea pigs, provided something new and unique in the way of an animal show, held at the Grammar school under the auspices of the local P.T.A. unit. Most of the entries arrived after being slicked up in back-yard beauty parlors by their admiring owners. The show was voted a great success but some of the youngsters could not understand how the judges, Richard Knost, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Dr. John Woehler, failed to see the outstanding charms of their own particular pets.

Winners in the following classifications were announced:

Dean Bode Swaps Compositions With Fellow Countryman

Dean Bode addressed the Young People's Society of All Saints Church, Pasadena, last Sunday evening on the subject of "The Underdog." He then spent an hour with a fellow Australian, C. S. Childe, at the organ of the Christian Service Church.

The Childe and the Bodes were friends in Australia fifty years ago. As young men, C. S. Childe went to be the articulated pupil of the organist, Sir Frederick Bridge, at Westminster Abbey, while Dean Bode went to be organist at Cuddesdon College, Oxford. They had never met till last week. They spent a pleasant hour recalling incidents, relations and friends of fifty years ago, and listening to one another's compositions for organ and choir.

On Wednesday evening Dean Bode delivered the invocation at the commencement of the Los Angeles Law School of the University of the West, where the Dean was formerly on the Music faculty.

Flowers For All Shut-ins Next Sunday

Public Is Asked To Cooperate So That None Will Be Overlooked

Arrangements have been made to distribute flowers to the shut-ins of this city Sunday, June 10, when the second annual National Shut-In Day will be observed.

Mrs. Jessie Ward Russell of the Ward Nursery and Florist has accepted the appointment as chairman of the local flower shut-in day movement.

On National Flower Shut-in day, the florists of America under the leadership of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, endeavor to deliver flowers to every permanent shut-in it is possible to reach. It is an entirely altruistic movement and no florist identified with it will sell flowers that are intended for shut-ins on June 10.

Mrs. Russell has asked help in securing the names and addresses of the shut-ins from the following organizations: American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Daughters of Civil War Veterans, Daughters of British Empire, Eastern Star, Masons, Kiwanis, Red Cross, Firemen's Club, Friendship Club, Woman's Club, and all of the church organizations. Any one else knowing of a shut-in who might be overlooked is asked to send in the names to the Ward nursery.

The National Flower Day movement will be observed throughout the United States and Canada. The florists of America are ready for a big job. The goal is "flowers for a quarter-million shut-ins." The Ward Nursery is the local bonded member of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association.

Flying Sheriffs In Blimp And Air-Planes Hunt 'Bandit'

Flying deputies in the Los Angeles county Sheriff's Aero Squadron will be given another acid test of their ability on June 10.

Their flight will be directed entirely by radio and teletype, and the 30 members of the squadron will search from the air for a "bandit car" according to Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz. Under the direction of the sheriff and Captain Claude Morgan, of the aero detail, arrangements have been perfected, it was said, to stage one of the most unique police investigations in history.

Operating from United Airport as their base, 17 speedy planes, manned by special deputy sheriffs will search the mountainous regions until they locate the "suspected bandits."

According to arrangements, the crew of the Goodyear blimp, with its receiving and broadcasting sets, will cruise over the route believed to be taken by the "bandits." When they sight the wanted car they will radio to United Airport and advise the flyers of the direction taken by the machine. Immediately the Aero Squadron will take off in pursuit. When the planes locate the automobile they will land and report to the nearest sheriff's substation. Then, through teletype, deputy sheriffs will be directed in speeding radio cars to make the "capture."

To MY FRIENDS and POLICYHOLDERS

Statements have been made to the effect that I have disposed of ALL of my Insurance business; that I no longer have any interests in Sierra Madre. I am taking this means of correcting that impression. Circumstances made it necessary for me to discontinue my office and a portion of my insurance business which was turned over to Mrs. Helen M. Gerschler. Those policy holders were so advised by letter.

I still have property in Sierra Madre, and will continue to service the balance of my policy holders and look after their interests in the Great American Insurance Co. of New York and the Fidelity-Phenix of New York, which are two of the strongest and best known Board Companies. A continuance of your confidence and patronage is respectfully solicited.

You may reach me promptly by addressing Box 96, Sierra Madre, or leaving message at Sierra Madre Savings Bank.

The friendship and business patronage that I have enjoyed in Sierra Madre has been very much appreciated and I am looking forward to the time when I may again spend all of my time in this community.

IN YOUR GARDEN

GARDEN NOTES
By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

PLAN your garden so that you will have at least one shady, secluded nook where you can enjoy rest and coolness during the hot summer days. Plant a few shade trees. Screen out the neighbors with some dense shrubbery so that you can enjoy a little privacy when you feel like resting in the fresh air. Native Sycamore trees and Acacia trees are useful for quick shade.

Dense growing shrubs that can be used for screening are Privets, Pittosporums, Eugénias, Cotoneasters, Pyracanthia, Myrtus, Oleanders and Hydrangeas.

A small pool and a bit of lawn near the shady nook is refreshing and helps to make you feel cooler.

Beds that have contained spring flowering plants can now be cleaned out, spaded, fertilized and replanted with summer blooming plants such as Asters, Zinnias, Marigolds, Petunias, Chrysanthemums and Pentstemon. Shady beds can be planted to Begonias, Columbine, Lobelias and Ageratum.

Orange, Lemon, Grapefruit, Tangerine and Avocado trees can be planted now. They are subtropical plants and like warm weather.

Stork Raises Crop On Farms

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

THAT old-fashioned, all-American institution — the farm family — still flourishes! On the Pacific Coast, for example, the bumper baby crop of 1933 has boosted farm population to a new, all-time high. And in the Nation at large, according to the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the robust farm family outstripped both death and the depression to establish a new record.

Mounting to a total of 1,211,000, farm population in the three Pacific Coast states—California, Oregon and Washington—showed a net gain of more than 3,000, despite the fact that 72,000 farmers migrated to the cities during the year and only 66,000 city residents shifted to the country.

Nationally the number of farmers, and farmer's wives and children, jumped to 32,509,000—an increase of 267,000 in the farm population, according to the federal report.

Shifting trends of the depression and post-depression periods were clearly indicated in the federal analysis, however, with the showing that 1,178,000 country people moved city-ward during the year, while approximately 951,000 urban residents looked for greener pastures in the country.

Only the high birth rate "back on the farm," offsetting migration and death losses at a single stroke, accounted for the net increase in farm population. City birth rates, on the other hand, dropped sharply, due to dwindling income and the whims of depression.

A. L. A. Activities

By Minnie Stinman

UNIT 297, American Legion Auxiliary, wishes to thank all those who so generously donated flowers for Memorial Day. The blossoms were truly gorgeous, and such a bountiful supply was given that we had plenty for every need.

The Poppy reports, though not yet complete, indicate that we distributed nearly 900 poppies in Sierra Madre. This splendid result was achieved through the teamwork of the membership and the increased interest of the public in the efforts of the American Legion Auxiliary to promote patriotism and Americanism.

President Leila Embree entertained the Area Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Linda Groetsinger, at a luncheon at her home last Monday. Invited to meet Mrs. Groetsinger and her mother, Mrs. May, were the two publicity chairmen of Unit 297, Dorothy Shetter and Minnie Stinman.

June is an important month in the calendar of Auxiliary activities. The celebration, next Thursday, June 14, of the 157th birthday of "Old Glory" is directly connected with the Americanism and Community Service which form such a large part of the work of this organization. These two activities will increase in scope and importance as the years between us and the Great War increase in number. With the pressing needs of Child Welfare and Rehabilitation constantly before us, the Americanism committee in particular has been kept rather in the background, its chairmanship regarded as one of the minor offices. As the children of veterans grow up and become self-supporting, and time thins the ranks of the veterans, the Auxiliary will find its emphasis shifted more and more to Americanism and Community Service. The former includes all activities that tend to perpetuate American ideals and uphold the principles upon which this country was founded. This work is largely educational and falls naturally into three phases, work with the foreign-born, with the youth, and with indifferent adult citizens.

The Auxiliary supplements the patriotic teaching of the school by distributing flag codes among the children to aid them in obtaining knowledge of the history of our flag, its proper observance and display, and an understanding of the reverence in which all good Americans hold the Stars and Stripes.

Register and vote. Honor the flag by performing this important duty of citizenship. That should be the message of the display of the flag on June 14. It is not enough that we admire our beautiful silken flags, we need the kind of loyalty possessed by that little band of patriots who, on August 3, 1777, at Fort Stanwix, New York, flung to the breeze, with military honors, an "Old Glory" fashioned from the only materials at hand, a soldier's white shirt, a woman's red petticoat and a piece of blue cloth.

Why COOPERATION of Citrus Growers is more important now than at any other time in the history of the industry

OVER-PRODUCTION and surplus control is only one of the problems confronting the citrus industry. There is another reason why cooperative action is vital at this time:

Other industries are striving to break into the market we have worked for years to develop.

In the past 27 years, since Sunkist advertising began, the per capita consumption of oranges increased approximately 125%, and increased 31% in the past 5 years over the preceding 5 years. People have learned more of the healthfulness of oranges. People have learned to consume them in juice form rather than halved. Nearly 70% of the oranges sold today are for beverage use.

This market is decidedly attractive to the growers of pineapples and tomatoes. You have only to read the magazines to realize that it is "easier to punch two holes in a can than squeeze the fruit by hand."

Further, beer is back—to dig no one knows how deeply into the soda fountain business which took 16,000 cars of citrus fruits in 1931.

In cooperative action lies our only defense—a further spreading of the known health benefits and uses of citrus fruits. While Sunkist advertising benefits all growers, Exchange growers benefit most, as better prices for the Sunkist brand show.

Every grower should support the California-Arizona Citrus Marketing Agreement which accomplishes surplus control by regulating shipments to improve prices.

It is equally important that growers support advertising which accomplishes similar results by increasing demand.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS EXCHANGE

A non-profit, cooperative organization of over 13,000 California and Arizona citrus growers, marketers of the world's most famous brand of fresh fruits:

Kiwanians Win One-Hit Fracas Here

Drop Exciting Game To Visiting Mallorys 5-1 With Lane Team

A one-hit-no-run victory over the Sarvers of Pomona and a 5-1 defeat at the hands of the Mallory team of Alhambra is the week's record of the Kiwanis club, the latter conflict being one of the best played and most exciting games of the year here.

Monday night's game on the local school grounds developed into a runfest. The Kiwanis club scored 22 runs on 20 hits.

The first man up in the first inning, Don Smith, singled. That was the first and last hit of the game for the Sarver team. Out of a total of 20 hits, Marsh and F. LaLone accounted for four each, while Brain and Hedlund each nabbed three. Two of LaLone's clouts were good for the circuit, while Hedlund socked one for the same distance. The score:
